

UAJK's SDG Based Publications

The University of Azad Jammu and Kashmir has made remarkable progress in advancing research aligned with the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs). With nearly 2,600 publications indexed on Scopus, UAJK's research portfolio reflects its strong commitment to sustainability, innovation, and social impact. These publications span diverse fields including health, education, environment, energy, and community development demonstrating the university's vital role in generating knowledge that contributes to achieving global sustainability objectives.

All publications can be viewed on Scopus ID 60043504 for detailed insights and references.